Senator Brouk on SCOTUS Decision Removing Eviction Protections

SAMRA G. BROUK August 12, 2021

| ISSUE: SUPREME COURT, AFFORDABLE HOUSING CRISIS, SCOTUS

“The conservative Supreme Court’s blocking of New York State’s eviction moratorium will result in greater homelessness and housing instability in our State as COVID-19 variants bring a resurgence of death and disease within our communities—the decision is morally repugnant and deeply irresponsible. Some protections still exist for constituents facing COVID-related financial hardships, and I encourage anyone in need of assistance to reach out to my office.”
