| ISSUE: AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT 587, PLANE CRASH, ANNIVERSARY, ADDABBO

“With the horrible tragedy of 9/11 still fresh in our minds, just two short months later New York faced another terrible plane crash when American Airlines flight 587 crashed in Belle Harbor 20 years ago. Today we remember the 260 people on the flight, along with the five people on the ground that lost their lives that day, and pray for the family and friends that they left behind.”
