

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Alessandra Biaggi

Senator Biaggi And Senate Majority Pass Election Reforms And Further Empower New York Voters

ALESSANDRA BIAGGI January 12, 2022

ALBANY, NY – This week, State Senator Alessandra Biaggi and the Senate Democratic Majority passed legislation to improve New York State’s electoral system, expand voting on college campuses, empower New York voters to participate in democracy, and continue protecting voters at the polls amidst the ongoing pandemic. These actions continue the Senate Democratic Majority’s tradition of kicking off Legislative Session by passing major pro-voter, and pro-democracy legislation.

State Senator Alessandra Biaggi (D-Bronx/Westchester) issued the following statement:

“COVID-19 continues to impact every aspect of our lives, especially as positivity rates and hospitalizations surge across our state — but we cannot allow it to undermine our democracy and New Yorkers’ sacred right to vote. The failure of the voting rights ballot proposals in New York and the threat to voting rights across our nation place an even greater responsibility on the Legislature to do the right thing and prioritize voting reforms. My bill, S7565B, will ensure New Yorkers concerned with in-person voting due to the pandemic have the ability to request a ballot through 2022. As the end of the pandemic continues to remain uncertain, we must prioritize public health and ensure that New Yorkers do not have to choose between safeguarding their own health and fulfilling their civic duty. I want to thank Majority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins for prioritizing this issue at the very start of this legislative session."

The voting reforms passed by Senator Biaggi and the Senate Democratic Majority include:

- COVID Absentee Voting For School District Elections: This bill, S.7619, sponsored by Senator Shelley Mayer and co-sponsored by Senator Biaggi, allows voters who are concerned about voting in-person due to an epidemic or disease outbreak to request an absentee ballot for school district elections in 2022.
