(Brooklyn, NY) - As the State reduces mask and vaccination mandates State Senator Kevin Parker continues to provide resources to stop the spread. On Friday, March 11th State Senator Kevin Parker distributed over 200 mask and COVID at-home test kits to residents throughout Central Brooklyn outside of his District Office.

Senator Parker had the following to say about this giveaway: “While infection rates have slowed, it is important we continue to take steps to slow the spread so our businesses and schools can stay open and serve families of the 21st District. My office will continue to host giveaways and provide the necessary resources to residents.”
