

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Edward A. Rath III

Statement from Senator Rath on Senate One House Budget

EDWARD A. RATH III March 15, 2022

| ISSUE: 2023 SENATE ONE-HOUSE BUDGET RESOLUTION, 2022-2023 BUDGET

“Yesterday I voted “No” on the Senate One House Budget Resolution. While there are some good aspects, such as critical aid for our aging infrastructure, the bad far outweighed the good. The out-of-control spending from Albany needs to stop. New revenue streams for the State should have equated to cost savings for hard-working New Yorkers, unfortunately, that is not what is being done. As I have said time and time again, New York has an affordability crisis, and this budget is only going to make the issue worse.”
