Senate Resolution No. 2179

BY: Senator MAYER

COMMEMORATING the 60th Anniversary of the historical Sherwood House Museum

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that the quality of life of the citizens of the State of New York is greatly enriched by its exceptional cultural, educational and recreational institutions; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the 60th Anniversary of the Sherwood House Museum to be celebrated at the Yonkers Historical Society's Annual Dinner on Thursday, April 7, 2022, at the Fairways at Dunwoodie, Yonkers, New York; and

WHEREAS, One of the few remaining pre-Revolutionary War fully furnished tenant farmhouses in the New York Metropolitan area, the historic Sherwood House was built in 1740 by Thomas Sherwood who was a farmer, constable, and a tax collector of the Town of Yonkers; and

WHEREAS, The farmhouse was built on land leased from British loyalist Frederick Philipse III, whose vast manor extended from Spuyten Duyvil at what is now the northern tip of Manhattan Island all the way up north to the Croton River; and

WHEREAS, After the Revolutionary War, the Philipse family lost all claim to their land when it was confiscated by the State of New York; Thomas Sherwood's son, Stephen, purchased his father's farm in 1785 at an auction of seized properties; and

WHEREAS, In 1801, Yonkers' first physician, Dr. John Ingersoll, purchased the Sherwood House, where he resided and practiced medicine until his death in 1827; he was known for using remedies from the herbs grown in his garden; and

WHEREAS, For close to a century Frederick Weed and his descendants owned the homestead; furthermore, the last private owners established Yonkers' first Italian restaurant, which was in business through the early 1950s; and

WHEREAS, The property eventually came into the possession of the Consolidated Edison Company of New York, who leased the land and gave ownership of Sherwood House and the two outer buildings to the Yonkers Historical Society in 1955 on the condition it would be preserved as a museum; and

WHEREAS, Since that time, the restoration and preservation of this renowned landmark has been carried on by the Yonkers Historic Society through gifts of funds, furniture, artifacts, and the countless hours of work put in by many public-spirited citizens who have dedicated their personal time to keeping this priceless landmark a living lesson in Yonkers history; and

WHEREAS, Sherwood House, located at 340 Tuckahoe Road, is the oldest farmhouse in Yonkers and is listed in the National Register of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, The success of Sherwood House is in direct correlation to the efforts of the Yonkers Historical Society's dedicated members and volunteers, whose involvement is, and always has been, characterized by an impressive commitment, an unbridled enthusiasm, and an uncompromising standard of excellence in all endeavors on behalf of the organization and the community it serves; and

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body that when institutions of such noble aims and accomplishments are brought to our attention, they should be recognized and applauded by all the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the 60th Anniversary of the historical Sherwood House Museum; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Sherwood House Museum, Yonkers, New York.
