SENATOR JOSEPH P. ADDABBO, JR. November 9, 2022

| ISSUE: ELECTION, 2022 ELECTION, ADDABBO

“Today my team and I got to open the doors of my district offices to once again get to work helping the people of the 15th Senate District. This honor wouldn’t be possible without the help of all of my supporters. My work is never done and I look forward to representing my constituents up in Albany and here in the communities with an eye on strengthening our police force, protecting our coastal communities, safely expanding gaming in New York and assisting our working-class families. To everyone who has supported me, I say THANK YOU!”
