Senator Stec officially sworn in for second term, announces 2023 legislative committee assignments

DANIEL G. STEC January 4, 2023

Senator Dan Stec (R,C-Queensbury) today was officially sworn in at the state Capitol in Albany to his second term as state Senator. In addition, Senator Stec announced he's been appointed to the following Senate committees:

- Environmental Conservation (Ranking Minority Member);
- Internet and Technology (Ranking Minority Member);
- Education;
- Health;
- Rules;
- State Native American Relations; and
- Veterans, Homeland Security and Military Affairs.

As a Senator who represents one of the largest and most geographically diverse Senate Districts in the state, Stec is pleased with these committee assignments and looks forward to using his role on them to enhance our communities.

"The committees on which I'm serving have a direct impact on our communities," said Senator Stec. "From protecting our unique natural resources to improving broadband access and other regionally specific issues, I look forward to working with my colleagues to ensure state government takes action to improve our quality of life. As this year's legislative session continues, I'll keep my constituents up-to-date on my efforts to accomplish that."
