Senate Republican Leader Rob Ortt has appointed Senator Pam Helming (54th District) Chair of the Senate Republican Conference, a key post responsible for helping to lead the Conference's agenda and priorities for the 2023 legislative session.

Senate Republican Leader Rob Ortt said, "Senator Helming is a strong, consistent and respected voice in our state Legislature, and I am proud to appoint her Chair of the Senate Republican Conference. As we head into a new legislative session, I am confident Senator Helming will continue the great work she has done to represent her constituents, and all New Yorkers, and help advance our conference priorities to make our state safer, stronger, and more affordable for all.”

Senator Pam Helming said, “It is an honor to be appointed Chair of the Senate Republican Conference and to have the confidence and trust of Leader Ortt and my colleagues. I look forward to helping lead our efforts to better the lives of our constituents, protect and care for our children, and support the growth of local businesses and jobs.”
