State Senator Rob Rolison (39th District) announced today that his office will host an unwanted document-shredding event on Saturday, June 3 at John Jay High School from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The free event is co-hosted by Hudson Valley Credit Union (HVCU). Residents are encouraged to bring paper documents only. HVCU staff will be on hand to assist in the shredding.

"Thank you to our partners at Hudson Valley Credit Union for helping us to coordinate this free community event. Document shredding can be costly and time-consuming. Fortunately, this is a free and easy opportunity to dispose of unwanted paper documents close to home. We hope to see you on June 3rd," said Sen. Rolison.
