Income Tax Information

Earlier this week, you might have received an e-mail from me regarding tax preparation season and ways you can save money for you and your family.

A great resource in this regard is the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance website, which is loaded with information to help you file your taxes accurately, on-time, and in the most cost-effective way possible.

As always, if you have any questions, my staff and I are here to help. Both Federal and New York State Income Tax Forms are available in my office, along with instruction booklets.

Please feel free to contact my office at 225-3650 or e-mail me at robach@nysenate.gov and we'll do whatever we can to get you the answers you need.

Celebrating Black History Month

Recently, I had the privilege to take part in a ceremony at School #36 to celebrate Black History Month. Students took part in assemblies and also welcome community leaders for lunch. Black History Month is celebrated each year in February. For more photographs from this event, follow me on Facebook.
