Out and About Events Around My District This Week

Legislatively Speaking

Earlier this week, you may have read an article on a bill I had previously submitted, S712, that would allow voters to decide on whether or not New York State should be broken up into two separate states.

I thank all of those who offered their views, either for or against the idea, as I always welcome feedback from you on important matters.

If this piece of legislation is of interest to you, you may also want to review another bill I introduced, which would bring initiative and referendum to New York State. It is already in place in 26 other states around the country.

As always, you can find out more information about both bills by visiting my website and clicking on the link titled "Legislation".

On Tuesday, March 29th, at 10:00 a.m., Canandaigua National Bank & Trust will hold a groundbreaking ceremony for their newest branch, at 665 Long Pond Road in Greece. Congratulations to CNB on their continued growth throughout our area!

The Foundation of the Monroe County Bar will hold its inaugural Jazz for Justice on Friday, April 1st, at the Haro East Ballroom from 6:00 until 10:00 p.m.

Honoring One of Rochester's Youth

Earlier this week, I had the opportunity to welcome Sara J. Carroll to my legislative office Albany. Sara was honored by the Boys and Girls Club of Rochester as a "Youth of the Year". Congratulations to Sara on this honor!

One Step Closer presents a Bowl-a-Thon on Sunday April 3rd from 1:00 until 3:00 p.m. at Clover Lanes, 2750 Monroe Avenue. One Step Closer is dedicated to providing needy youth in Rochester City Schools with a new pair of shoes for the new school year.
