2012-2013 New York State Budget

On Friday, March 30th, the New York State Senate passed legislation to enact the 2012-2013 New York State Budget prior to its deadline for the second year in a row. Passage of the budget came after the public and transparent process, which included a number of public hearings and forums.

This budget helps protect taxpayers and create jobs throughout our community and state. It also controls government spending and taxes.

You can read full details of the 2012-2013 New York State Budget by visiting my website at www.robach.nysenate.gov.

On a side note, I would like to wish you and your family a Happy Passover and a Happy Easter, and to all the students out there, have a safe Spring Break!

International Children's Book Day

Earlier this week, I had the privilege to celebrate International Children's Book Day by reading to kids at Brighton Memorial Library.

Following story time, kids had the opportunity to create their own books. International Children's Book Day was held on Monday, April 2nd. For more photos from this event and the rest of this week's community events, follow me on Facebook and Twitter.

Out and About Some of the Events In the Community

A number of communities will have special Spring Break activities for students. Contact your local town hall or visit your town's website for more information.

On Friday, April 13th, the Town of Greece will host 'CSC on Broadway' Dance for Seniors from 12:30 until 2:30 p.m. at the Town of Greece Community and Senior Center.

Saturday, April 14th, The Main Street Armory hosts 5th Annual Tartan Day from Noon until 7:00 p.m. One of the highlights of the event is the Rochester Scot of the Year Award, which will be presented around 3:30.
