Employment Fair and Networking Event

You might have recently received a postcard from me in the mail announcing my 2012 Employment Fair and Networking Event, which will be held in May. Following the tremendous success of the Career Fair in December, I am once again teaming up with Angelo Planning Group, LLC, The August Group, RochesterWorks!, Time Warner Cable, and MCC for another fair on Wednesday, May 16th.

It will once again be at the MCC Brighton Campus, from 2:00 until 5:00 p.m., in the Warshof Conference Center, which is located at the R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center.

For more information, please visit my website at www.robach.nysenate.gov and click on the job fair graphic in the left hand column. I will update the page with employers scheduled to attend and further details as we get closer.

March Against Violence

Recently, I had the privilege to take part in the March Against Violence, which was held near the victory garden in the Northeast Community. The march was organized by Bridges to Wellness, which is a community health initiative in northeast Rochester that engages residents to bring about positive changes to their community. For more information, follow me on Facebook.
