THURSDAY
OCTOBER 17, 2019
6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Hempstead Public Library
115 Nichols Court
Hempstead, NY 11550

Every day, at least one Long Islander dies from an opiate overdose. Overdoses can happen to anyone. Senator Kevin Thomas is sponsoring this training in conjunction with the Nassau County Department of Human Services to teach residents what to do in case of an overdose and to help them learn how to administer the life-saving, overdose-reversal agent called Naloxone, or "NARCAN." All attendees will receive a free package of NARCAN.
