

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

PATRICK M. GALLIVAN

59TH SENATE DISTRICT

Area Business Owners,

Senator Pat Gallivan is teaming up with the East Aurora Area Chamber of Commerce to bring an exciting Small Business Summit and Seminar to East Aurora!

Sen. Gallivan will speak with participants about of the positive developments happening in the Empire State and use your input to help address the many challenges small businesses still face.

Additionally, Sen. Gallivan is bringing in business development specialist Frank Swiatek to teach strategies you can be using to improve leads, increase sales and drive profits! Frank has been a private sector business consultant for over 30 years, given over 3450 presentations, worked for over 25 Fortune 500 companies and co-authored “Managers, can you hear me now? – Hard-Hitting Lessons on How to Get Real Results!” with Verizon Wireless CEO Denny Strigl.

The summit is free of charge, and open to any area business owner, working professional or entrepreneur, both chamber members and non-members, but space is limited to 65 registrants so register today!

When: Tuesday, October 22nd from 8:00 AM to 9:30 AM

Where: Town of Aurora Auditorium, 300 Gleed Street in East Aurora.

Register today by contacting Mitch Martin, Community Representative for Senator Gallivan. Email Mitch@senatorgallivan.com or reserve directly by calling (716) 656-8544.

Light refreshments and time to network with the presenters and fellow business owners will be made available.

This will be a great opportunity to hear about new ideas in small business development and to network with other local business owners.

More information is available at gallivan.nysenate.gov.