

We Need Your Help! March with us to show the community that you are Fed Up and will not put up with violence in our community!

Senator José M. Serrano in conjunction with members of the East Harlem Community urge you to join them in a ...

MARCH AGAINST VIOLENCE

In East Harlem / El Barrio

Thurs. May 27th, 2010
6:00 PM

Meet outside the Thomas Jefferson Recreation Center (1st Ave, south of 114th Street) at 5:30 pm—the March will begin promptly at 6:00 pm. Signs will be available to anyone that will be marching on a first come first serve basis. You are encouraged to bring photos that illustrate a personal experience related to violence that you would like to share. We will finish the march at 104th Street and Lexington Avenue at approximately 7:00 PM.

Route:

To get involved in organizing this march or for more information please call Senator Serrano's Office at (212) 828-5829 or email marcheastharlem@gmail.com

Co-sponsors:

New York County District Attorney's Office, 23rd Precinct & Community Council, 25th Precinct & Community Council, Congressman Charles Rangel, Senator Bill Perkins, Assembly Member Adam Clayton Powell IV, Manhattan Borough President Scott M. Stringer, Councilmember Melissa Mark-Viverito, Manhattan Community Board 11, Peggy Morales, Keith Lilly, Cordell Cleare-District Leaders, Taller Boricua, Human Services Consortium of East Harlem, Northside Center for Child Development