Budget breakdown: $2.61 per $1,000

By John Zick

What it is: The Town of Big Flats' proposed 2012 tax rate

- Change from 2011: None
- Total 2012 proposed budget: $5.6 million ($4.3 million general, highway)
- Total 2011 budget: $5.4 million ($4.1 million general, highway)
- Proposed 2012 tax levy: $1.86 million
- Proposed tax levy increase: 0.54 percent
- Fund balance as of Jan. 1: $1.9 million
- Note: The Big Flats Town Board will consider a local law to override the state's 2-percent property tax cap. At 0.54 percent, the town's proposed increase does not break the threshold, but officials want to protect the town retroactively because some believe the state's calculation formulas are open to interpretation.

VETERANS

The Corning VFW, located at 281 Baker St., will host a Veterans Day dinner beginning at 3:30 p.m. It will feature ham and roast beef, and the cost is $5. Veterans eat free here, too.

■ Elmira

The Chemung County Veterans Council will hold the annual Veterans Day Services on Friday, with events at Wisner Park and Woodlawn National Cemetery.

Services at Wisner Park will begin at 11 a.m. and will feature remarks by Joseph Doherty, who served in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. Also, Elmira City Councilman James Hare will read Gov. Andrew Cuomo's Veterans Day proclamation.

Services at Woodlawn National Cemetery will begin at noon, and will feature remarks by Walter "Skip" Baroody, superintendent of the Woodlawn and Bath national cemeteries.

Also, state Sen. Tom O'Mara, R-Big Flats, will read President Barack Obama's Veterans Day proclamation.

Color guards from several area veterans' organizations will take part in the services.

■ Campbell/Savona

The students and staff at Campbell-Savona High School will host a free breakfast for all local veterans from 7:30-9 a.m. Friday. It's open to any veteran that is currently serving or has ever served in any branch of the armed forces, active duty or reserve.

Also, the Village of Savona will host a Veterans Day ceremony, presented by the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 7 Honor Guard from Bath, at 11 a.m. on the front lawn of Savona Village Hall, 15 McCoy St.

■ Hammondsport, Bath

In correlation with the History Channel's "Bring a Vet to School" program, students at

Veterans Day Photos

We want photos of patriotic events planned for Veterans Day. We will run some in the newspaper and some at www.the-leader.com. Please send your pictures with your name and a daytime phone number to Eric Wensel at photodesk@the-leader.com.

Vernon E. Wightman Primary School in Bath will host more than 40 veterans for a ceremony at 1 p.m. in the school's gymnasium. There will be patriotic music and poetry readings, and a representative from the Bath VA will be presented with letters and artwork from students, thanking veterans for their service. The school has a Military Wall of Fame that honors more than 100 active duty soldiers and veterans related to students and staff.

Also, the Hammondsport American Legion will host a dedication ceremony for the new Roll of Honor at 11 a.m. Friday in Hammondsport's Village Square.

The Roll of Honor features the names of more than 800 veterans from Hammondsport and Urbana, from the Civil War to the present. Friday's ceremony will include remarks by Air Force veteran Gary Pruyn, and Navy veteran Gerald Hamblin will serve as chaplain. The Hammondsport American Legion Color Guard will also take part.

Holiday Inn open after fire

BY JOHN ZICK

ELMIRA | Five people were treated for smoke inhalation and several rooms were shut down after a fire ignited Wednesday morning at the Holiday Inn Riverview in Elmira.

The fire started around 8 a.m. Wednesday in Room 237, which was engulfed by flames when firefighters arrived. One person was in the room when the fire started.

Elmira Fire Chief Patrick Bermingham said the occupant reported the fire to emergency services, as did the hotel's emergency system.

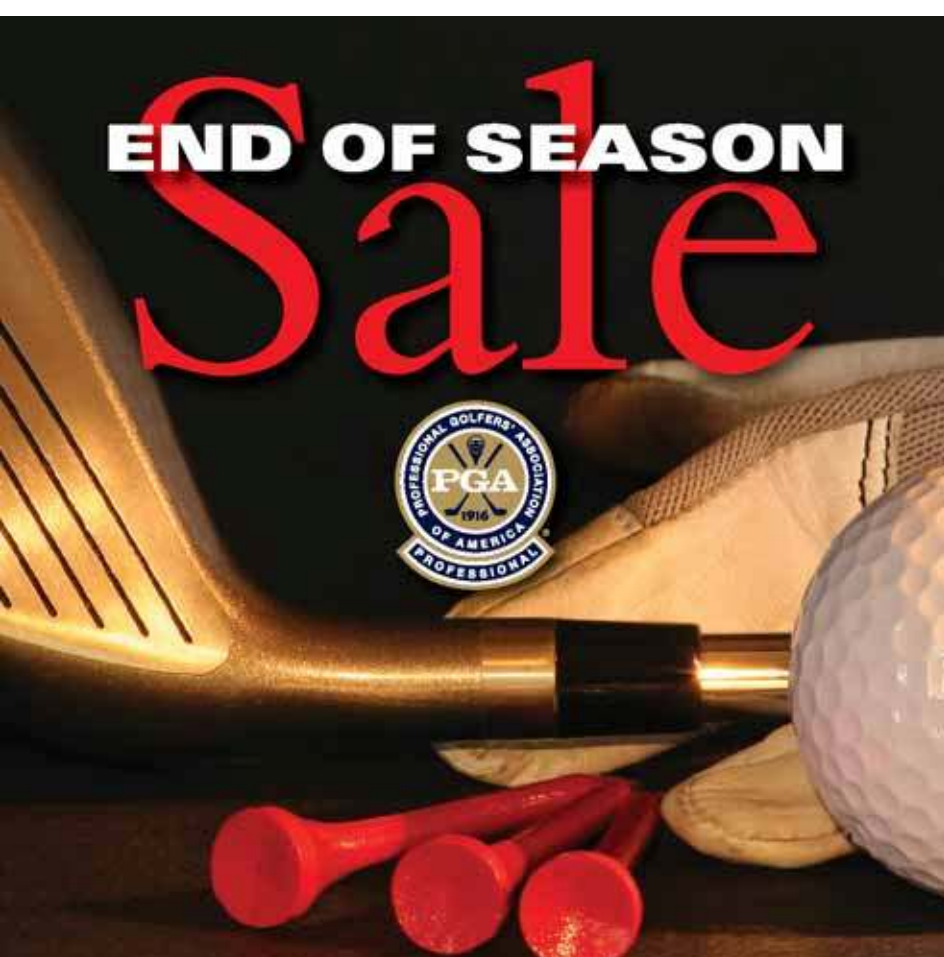

Investigators believe a faulty heating unit caused the blaze, although no definitive determination had been made as of Wednesday.

"It appears to be accidental," Bermingham said.

The room in which the fire started was badly damaged, and several other rooms sustained smoke, heat and water damage. Bermingham said a handful of rooms were closed, although most of the hotel remains open and operational.

Four of the five victims suffered only minor smoke inhalation, and no one required hospitalization, Bermingham said.

In addition to the Elmira Fire Department, the Elmira Heights, West Elmira and Southport fire departments responded to the scene.
