

Please join a 25th Senate District symposium

After ‘I Do’
What’s Next for LGBT New Yorkers?

Sponsored by State Senator Daniel Squadron,
Congressmembers Carolyn Maloney, Jerrold Nadler & Nydia Velázquez, Assembly
Speaker Sheldon Silver, Manhattan Borough President Scott Stringer, Brooklyn
Borough President Marty Markowitz, Assemblymembers Deborah J. Glick, Brian
Kavanagh, Joseph R. Lentol & Joan Millman, Councilmembers Margaret Chin, Brad
Lander, Stephen Levin, & Rosie Mendez, and the Senate sponsor of marriage equality
State Senator Tom Duane

Even after the historic marriage equality vote, LGBT New Yorkers still face a number of challenges after they’re married -- including DOMA, interstate travel and relocation, adoption, social security, and health benefits. Join Senator Squadron and colleagues for a panel discussion with experts and advocates on the obstacles and opportunities for LGBT New Yorkers after ‘I Do.’

Tuesday, August 16, 2011
6:30PM to 8:00PM

Borough of Manhattan Community College -- Richard Harris Terrace
199 Chambers Street
New York , NY 10013

RSVP by emailing squadron@nysenate.gov