Teen Dating Violence: Working Together to find Community Solutions

In light of the recent news coverage surrounding the violent altercation between Chris Brown and Rihanna, we hope to educate and start a conversation about teen dating violence and also to share resources, both local and citywide that are available to young people experiencing violence in their relationships.

- Who: Everyone is Welcome
When: Friday, May 22nd, 2009
Time: 3pm-6pm
Where: Hostos Community College - Savoy Building
Multipurpose Room 120 East 149th St. at Walton Ave. 2nd Fl.

A panel of educators and organizers will be leading a discussion about issues surrounding healthy and abusive teen relationships including: types of abuse, gender, sexuality, LGBTQ domestic violence, and ways to organize and advocate

Local anti-violence organizations will be present throughout the event to share materials and resources

We will also have an interactive performance piece from PREGONES Theater entitled The Phone Call - Members from the audience directly participate in the play on stage and in related discussions

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact Jené Toussaint at (212) 828-5829 or jene.nys@gmail.com

We look forward to seeing you there!
