

"WOMEN WORKING IT"

Sponsored by Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins

February 19, 2011

1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Meeting Room 6, Concourse

Empire State Plaza

Do you own a business and want to expand?

Do you have an idea to start a business
& the ambition to make it happen?

Learn what it takes from women & government partners in this workshop that will be hosted by women who have been successful in growing their businesses and government partners who specialize in helping Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises (MWBE) with starting and expanding their businesses.

Panelists:

- Teri Coaxum, Regional Advocate, Small Business Administration
- Yrthya Dinzey-Flores, Chief Diversity Officer, Executive Chamber
- Das Velez, Director of Division of Minority & Women Business Development Empire State Development
- Quenia Abreu, President & CEO, New York Women's Chamber
- Jim King, NYS Small Business Development Center
- Pat MacKrell, President & CEO, NY Business Development Corporation
- Ramona Grey Harris, Owner/Property Manager, Edward Sisters Realty
- Kecia Palmer-Cousins, Co-owner, G & K Sweets
- And other special guests who are women entrepreneurs