Happy Halloween! Halloween Safety Part 2

Sunday Night, thousands of children will go door-to-door, trying to get as much candy as they can. The costumes are bought and everyone is set for Halloween. Last week, I gave some tips related to costumes. As you take your kids out for Halloween on Sunday, keep in mind some of these additional safety tips:

- Accompany your children at all times
- Visit only the homes that have outside lights on
- Watch out for decorations, such as pumpkins, lights, or other popular Halloween items that may be in the sidewalk leading up to a door
- Inspect your children's candy when returning home. Throw away any candy that is not sealed.

Best wishes to your family for a safe and Happy Halloween!
