

Senator Patrick M. Gallivan's Small Business Summit & Seminar

Dear Business Owner,

As a member of the Western New York small business community, you know that guiding and growing a small business in today's economy can be a daunting task with seemingly few resources dedicated to helping you – the business owner.

With that challenge in mind, I am teaming up with the West Seneca Chamber of Commerce and area leaders in business development to bring a free small business summit to Erie County and you're invited!

The event is free of charge and will be held at the Certo Brothers Distributing Company on May 16th from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. (refreshments and light breakfast starting at 7:30 am with Summit starting promptly at 8:00am). This will be a great opportunity to hear about new ideas in small business development and to network with other local business owners. Space is limited so please review the information below and register right away.

I hope to see you on May 16th!

Patrick M. Gallivan
New York State Senator – 59th District

When: Friday, May 16th, 2014, 8:00 AM to 9:30 AM

Where: Certo Brothers Distributing Company, 2500 North America Drive, West Seneca, NY 14224

Presentations will include:

What is being done for small business in Albany – State Senator Patrick M. Gallivan

Senator Gallivan was first elected to the Senate in 2010, representing all or parts of Erie, Wyoming, Livingston and Monroe Counties. He serves on the Senate's Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business Committee and is Deputy Leader of the Republican Conference for Economic Development.

What businesses can do for themselves – Frank Swiatek

Frank serves on Senator Gallivan's staff as his Senior Advisor for Small Business. As a private sector consultant for over 30 years, Frank has conducted over 3450 presentations for organizations throughout the US and Canada, worked for numerous small businesses and over 25 Fortune 500 companies. Frank is co-author with Denny Strigl, the former President and CEO of Verizon Wireless, of the business development book, "Managers, can you hear me now? – Hard-Hitting Lessons on How to Get Real Results!"

A light breakfast, refreshments and time to network with the presenters and fellow business owners will be made available.

Space is limited so please reserve your spot for Senator Patrick M. Gallivan's 2014 Small Business Summit in West Seneca today by contacting Mitch Martin, Community Representative for Senator Gallivan. Email Mitch@senatorgallivan.com or reserve directly by calling (716) 656-8544.
