

Women of DISTINCTION

HONORING WOMEN IN NEW YORK

Melissa D. Mohan

Melissa D. Mohan, Esq. has been a resident of the Deer Park community for more than 30 years.

Ms. Mohan is an attorney, real estate broker, entrepreneur, and dedicated community leader. She founded Melmo Realty LLC, a full-service real estate brokerage, and the Law Office of Melissa D. Mohan PLLC, a real estate and business law firm, to better serve her community in a thoughtful and compassionate way.

Demonstrating an unwavering commitment to excellence in her everyday life, Ms. Mohan is the first woman to be elected as President of the Deer Park Chamber of Commerce. This is an organization that actively seeks to promote and encourage commerce and businesses within the community.

Ms. Mohan serves as Chair of the Young Professionals Board of New Ground, a nonprofit that aims to break the cycle of homelessness for Long Island families and veterans. Under her leadership, the Young Professionals Board has flourished through using social media, online fundraising platforms, and other creative ways that helped propel the organization through the COVID-19 pandemic. For her efforts and commitment, Ms. Mohan was recognized as the 2023 recipient of the Thomas Whelan Memorial Award for Excellence.

Her most recent appointment to the Suffolk County Downtown Revitalization Citizens Advisory Panel is a testament to her leadership skills and community engagement. She currently serves on the Precinct Level Advisory Board for the Suffolk County Police Department, working diligently to enhance the relationship and understanding between the community and the Police Department. To further serve her neighborhood and community, she is a member of the 43rd Civilian Police Academy.

Melissa D. Mohan was selected as a
2024 Women of Distinction honoree by Senator Monica R. Martinez

