

PHOTO RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 4, 2024

Contact: Seth Squicciarino
Phone: (631) 341-7111 EXT: 1050
Email: squiccia@nysenate.gov

Senator Martinez Joins Thousands for Annual Puerto Rican-Hispanic Day Parade

Photo: State Senator Monica R. Martinez joins participants of the 58th annual Puerto Rican-Hispanic Day Parade held on June 2, 2024 (Click here for a downloadable high-resolution version).

BRENTWOOD, N.Y. - Thousands of excited spectators came out this past Sunday for the 58th Annual Puerto Rican-Hispanic Day Parade in celebration of Hispanic history and heritage. The parade, which runs along Fifth Avenue in Brentwood and Bay Shore, attracted nearly 3,000 participants who walked, danced, or rode in decorated cars and floats along the route, including State Senator Monica R. Martinez and her team.

[MORE]

“The Puerto Rican-Hispanic Day Parade is a celebration of culture and shared experiences,” said Senator Martinez. “This annual tradition unites Long Island’s Hispanic communities in recognition of our rich heritage.”

Photo: State Senator Monica R. Martinez marches in the 58th annual Puerto Rican-Hispanic Day Parade held on June 2, 2024 (Click here for a downloadable high-resolution version).

Photo: State Senator Monica R. Martinez joins participants of the 58th annual Puerto Rican-Hispanic Day Parade held on June 2, 2024 (Click here for a downloadable high-resolution version).