HONORING WOMEN IN NEW YORK

Pamela Kenyon

Pamela Kenyon is a woman whose life is a testament to resilience, dedication, and unwavering compassion. A business owner, community leader, and breast cancer survivor, she is not only the heart of Kenyon Insurance, but also the backbone of her family.

As a young mother of three, Ms. Kenyon balanced raising her children and building her career. Starting as a secretary at Kenyon Insurance in 1986, she showed relentless determination to create a better future for her family and attended night classes to earn her brokerage license. Her hard work eventually led her to become the proud owner of the company in 2015. Ms. Kenyon made history by transforming Kenyon Insurance into a female-owned and operated business – a milestone that solidified her legacy in the community.

Ms. Kenyon's leadership has been more than just professional; it has been personal. Her dedication to the Worcester community is profound and expansive. She has supported numerous local organizations, including youth sports, always giving selflessly. As the Worcester Baseball Organization shared, "Pam Kenyon's unmatched commitment shines through... Her generosity and community spirit are truly inspiring." Her contributions extend far beyond business transactions, and her commitment to improving the lives of others is evident in everything she does.

Her strength also shone brightly during her battle with breast cancer. Faced with a challenging diagnosis, Ms. Kenyon approached it with the same courage and determination that she applies to every aspect of her life. Despite the hardship, she continued to run her business, care for her family, and serve her community. Today, she is cancer-free and uses her journey to advocate for others, supporting The Breast Cancer Foundation and raising awareness.

Ms. Kenyon never seeks recognition, yet her remarkable impact speaks for itself. The battles she has fought, the lives she has touched, and the powerful examples she has set deserve to be celebrated. Ms. Kenyon transcends her roles as a mother and businesswoman – she is an icon whose legacy will continue to inspire and resonate for generations to come.

Pamela Kenyon was selected as a
2025 Women of Distinction honoree by Senator Peter Oberacker
