

ONLINE RESOURCES: ARTS & CULTURE

Dear Neighbor,

We have all been dealing with the isolation caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, and trying to find new ways to connect. Fortunately, for those of us who have access to the internet, there are a host of resources available that can allow us all to remain connected. In October, my office hosted an online forum that explored arts and cultural resources available online. Staff and interns also compiled a selection of those resources, and I wanted to use this newsletter to share them with you. Below you will find a collection of virtual experiences from around the world. Experiences on this list are not endorsements from our office. Some experiences are free, while others are ticketed. Please check the host's website as events continue to evolve.

I hope you will find these resources useful.
