

Dear Friend:

Our servicemen and women put their lives on the line each day to help keep our country free, enabling their fellow citizens to go about their daily routines in comfort and safety. There is no question that veterans have earned the enduring gratitude of their fellow New Yorkers. That is why the New York Division of Military and Naval Affairs has many medals and awards to honor our New York veterans for their many sacrifices and commitment to serving the people of this great nation.

Included in this brochure is a description of only a few of the many awards available through the New York State Division of Military and Naval Affairs to New York veterans. For a complete listing, please visit dmna.ny.gov and click on "Military Member Services" and then click on "Awards and Decorations." You can also call the office at: (518) 786-4589.

I hope you find this information useful. If I can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

George M. Borrello

Senator George M. Borrello
57th Senate District

Where to Go for Help

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs helps veterans, their dependents, and survivors. You can visit them on the Internet at: www.va.gov. The New York State Division of Veterans Services protects the interests of veterans, and provides information on any benefits due to them through veterans service providers. You can contact the New York State Division of Veterans' Services at: 1-888-VETSNYS (1-888-838-7697). This number is in operation from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., weekdays or on the Internet at: veterans.ny.gov. For questions about New York State Military Awards, call the New York State Awards Program Office at (518) 786-4589 or visit their web site dmna.ny.gov/awards/. Also, every county in New York State has a veterans service agency to provide assistance on the local level.

New York State Military Awards and Decorations

Medal for Valor

The Medal for Valor may be awarded to any member of the New York State Organized Militia who shall have displayed a conspicuous act of valor, heroism, courage or gallantry either in a military or civilian capacity. For more information on how to obtain an application to recommend someone to receive this award, please refer to the dmna.ny.gov website or call (518) 786-4520. The approving authority for this award is the Governor.

The Conspicuous Service Medal

The Conspicuous Service Medal may be awarded to any individual who shall have distinguished themselves by exceptionally meritorious service in a capacity of great responsibility. The service can be performed while in an active status by a member of the New York State Organized Militia, by a civilian in support of the New York State Organized Militia, or to other individuals who have provided support to the New York State Organized Militia and deemed appropriate by the Adjutant General. For more information on how to obtain an application to recommend someone to receive this award, please refer to the dmna.ny.gov website or call (518) 786-4520. The approving authority for this award is the commander of each respective major component of the New York State Organized Militia.

The Conspicuous Service Cross

The Conspicuous Service Cross may be awarded to any current New York State citizen or person who was a New York State citizen while serving on federal active duty; whose entire service was honorable subsequent to the time of receipt of the citation while serving in the U.S. Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard or in the Army Nurse Corps, and who has received a personal decoration issued by a brigade or equivalent higher headquarters. The Conspicuous Service Cross may also be awarded to any citizen of New York State who, while serving with the allied forces, received a personal decoration published in order issued by a brigade or equivalent higher headquarters. The award of the Conspicuous Service Cross is based on prior award of at least one of the following military decorations:

- Medal of Honor
- Distinguished Service Cross
