

CANNABISHUB
powered by Cleveland School of Cannabis

Cannabis Hub, powered by Cleveland School of Cannabis, and Senator James Sanders (D-Queens) are excited to announce their partnership to provide cannabis education to residents of New York.

The Cannabis Hub and Senator Sanders' Education Initiative is designed to help New Yorkers take advantage of opportunities in the cannabis industry. Residents interested in a career in the NY cannabis market will learn the fundamentals of cannabis and position themselves for success in the industry.

We will provide 3 education modules that will serve 25 students per cohort. You must apply and complete the admissions process to be accepted to this program.

Cannabis Hub and Senator Sanders are committed to providing this education for the residents of New York.

This 8-week program has been developed specifically for The Cannabis Hub and Senator Sanders' Education Initiative. Our education modules are:

- Cannabis Dispensary
- Cannabis Extracts and Infusions
- Cannabis Cultivation

Each program requires one hour of live streaming class per week and online pre-record classes.

*Classes are from 7pm – 8pm
