New York State Senate
Work-Based Learning
Spring Assistant
Perseverance • Distinction • Proficiency
The New York State Senate Work-Based Learning Program offers practical work experience alongside professionals in the Senate administrative offices supporting its 63 Senators and 1,100 employees. Assistants are placed within the State Senate’s fiscal, media, and events departments.

Participating Departments

Business Administration
The Senate Fiscal Office comprises the Payroll and Accounts Payable offices. Assistants will learn all stages of processing payroll, expenses, general accounting practices, and mandatory reporting.

Mass Communication
Media Services: Consists of Photography and Video and offers a wide variety of production tools and resources to help Members communicate with constituents. Media Services also records, livestreams, and archives all legislative proceedings including Session, public hearings, and committee meetings, both live and virtual.

You must be a college student or registered in a college-level work-based learning program to participate in the New York State Senate Work-Based Learning Spring Program.
FIRST STEPS
Contact your Campus Liaison Officer (CLO) or advisor to determine:

• The requirements for off-campus study;
• If you’re eligible to participate in such a program;
• The number of course credits earned; and
• Your institution’s application deadline for an off-campus internship.

ACADEMIC CREDIT
The Senate does not award course credits. Advisement, evaluation, and the granting of credits are the responsibility of on-campus faculty.

Please complete and submit application materials via mail or email in coordination with your Campus Liaison Officer/Advisor. If there is no Campus Liaison Officer/Advisor, please write, call or email the Office of Student Programs.

Work-Based Learning Assistants are assigned to work a pre-determined number of hours in a New York State Senate administrative office aligned with the student’s experience, abilities, and interests.
HOW TO APPLY

Upon approval for off-campus study, the applicant must submit to the Senate Student Programs Office the following documents via their Campus Liaison Officer/Advisor:

• A completed Work-Based Learning Application;

• College transcripts;

• One letter of reference from a person familiar with the applicant’s academic abilities and professional skill; and

• A one-page personal statement.
