SENATOR MONTGOMERY'S YOUTHBUILD ACT

Senator Montgomery, Senator Jesse Hamilton and Assemblywoman Latrice Walker welcome students from Brooklyn's DREAMS YOUTHBUILD Program to Albany to fight for more funding.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

S1749 (Montgomery)/ A835 (Cahill) - "NYS YouthBuild Act" creates a program that would provide grants to eligible YouthBuild programs in New York State.

YouthBuild is a comprehensive, youth diversion program focused on education, job training, leadership development, community service and the cultivation of life skills. YouthBuild students provide hundreds of hours of service to their communities while they produce and preserve affordable housing for low-income families.

The YouthBuild Act would appropriate the sum of $20 million per year for a period of three years in order to carry out the costs associated with the demonstration program. The Act would create a nine member interagency board, appointed by the Governor, that would make grants to eligible YouthBuild applicants in order to revitalize and sustain existing YouthBuild programs and expand the number of YouthBuild programs in New York State. Currently, there are 16 programs statewide including 8 in New York City.

State Senator
VELMANETTE MONTGOMERY
25th Senate District

Dear Neighbor,

As your representative in the New York State Senate, I have worked to develop legislative solutions to address issues and concerns important to my constituents, our state and our nation.

In response to public health concerns and to address disparities in New York, I have spearheaded the campaign to stem the spread of HIV/AIDS among intravenous drug users through legalized needle exchange programs; and authored laws to prohibit female genital mutilation, and expand the scope of practice and licensure for nurse practitioners in New York State to address the shortage of primary care doctors.

As an advocate for criminal justice reform, I have authored laws to remove barriers by prohibiting licensing agencies from disqualifying someone from licensure as a barber or cosmetologist solely on the basis of a criminal conviction; authored a law that prohibit the shackling of a pregnant woman in prison while being transported to the hospital to deliver her baby.

I am so thankful to my constituents for their suggestions for new legislation. I am proud to sponsor laws that are a direct result of constituent input such as the "The Blair Bill," a law that expands the protection of guide and service dogs was sponsored on behalf of Eric Blair and "The Community Board Bill" which originated from discussions with Community Board 6 members and was signed into law to allow community boards throughout the five boroughs of New York City to apply for and receive brownfield opportunity area grants.

I welcome your thoughts and ideas for new legislation. Please do not hesitate to contact my office if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,
Senator Velmanette Montgomery

MONTGOMERY BILLS SIGNED INTO LAW

ASHLEY'S LAW (FAMILY VISITATION BILL)

Ashley's Law (the Family Visitation Bill) strengthens family ties between New Yorkers who are incarcerated and their loved ones on the "outside." Senator

Montgomery was inspired to introduce the Family Visitation Bill by Ashley Duncan, a college student who experienced, first-hand, the inconsistencies with visiting policies and procedures when attempting to visit her father who, up until recently, had been incarcerated at various upstate correctional facilities for nearly 20 years.

Through the tireless advocacy of Ashley Duncan, the Osborne Association, the Correctional Association of New York State, the Fortune Society, and many other criminal justice advocates, Ashley's Law now requires the Department of Corrections and Community Supervision to establish and maintain a public website and dedicated toll-free telephone line to provide up-to-date information regarding specific visitation rules and regulations for all individual correctional facilities throughout the state.

THE 2015 ANTI-SHACKLING LAW

The 2015 Anti-Shackling bill strengthens the 2009 law and expands protections to women throughout all stages of pregnancy and eight weeks post-partum. The bill's provisions would apply to all state and local correctional facilities in New York.

Senator Montgomery and Assemblyman Nick Perry worked closely with dozens of women's rights, human rights and reproductive justice groups and thousands of people from around the state, including the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, American College of Nurse-Midwives, NYS Association of Licensed Midwives, Family Planning Advocates of NYS, NARAL Pro-Choice NY, NOW NYC, American Association of University Women NYS, the NYCLU, the Correctional Association of NY and the Coalition for Women Prisoners to pass additional protections for pregnant incarcerated women.

GED BILL (EDUCATIONAL PREPARATION FOR RE-ENTRY)

This legislation requires the Department of Correctional Services to provide prisoners with an opportunity to complete a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) prior to release on parole, conditional release, post release supervision or presumptive release.

INCREASING PAROLE BOARD TRANSPARENCY

S6806 (Montgomery)/A1984 (O'Donnell)

This bill directs the State Board of Parole to publish its appeal decisions within 60 days on a public website and create an annual index of such decisions.

The decisions are useful in that individuals and their attorneys can read appeal decisions in similar cases to see what kinds of arguments might apply to their cases and because agency transparency is an important tenet of open government. The Board of Parole, which exercises extraordinary discretion, should post its administrative appeal determinations so that the public and concerned citizens can have access to the body of decisions that informs the Board's practice.
