

The Margaret J. Hughes Memorial Fund

SCHOLARSHIP

Margaret J. "Maggie" Hughes passed away May 11, 1989. Maggie Hughes served with distinction as deputy director of the Washington Office of the State of New York, as a special assistant to Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller, and with the Washington Office of the New York State Senate.

The Margaret J. Hughes Memorial Fund Advisory Committee is pleased to announce the 2014 Competition for this $1,000 scholarship award.

Those who knew Maggie Hughes remember her wise, patient and caring attention to others, especially with youth. Interns and younger staffers found in Maggie not just a resource whose knowledge was comprehensive, but also a friend whose kind guidance was unerring.

In Maggie's memory, a group of her friends and associates organized a memorial fund. The Margaret J. Hughes Memorial Fund was established shortly after Maggie's death, to fund an annual award to a deserving student intern in the New York State Senate.

Candidates for this award will be evaluated on overall performance, writing and other communications skills, interest in and commitment to public service and integrity. Candidates must be duly enrolled in an undergraduate degree program at an accredited institution of higher learning, working in an office of the New York State Senate.

This $1,000 cash award will be given to a candidate who best upholds the values and traditions for which Maggie was known.

The award candidate must complete the enclosed nomination form. Forms are available from the Senate Student Programs office. General information about the Scholarship Award is available by contacting:
