happy Holidays

Dear Friend,

With the holiday season upon us, I wanted to send you this personal message of appreciation for all you do to make our community a better place to live, work and raise a family. It is an honor to serve you in the State Senate and I am humbled by your trust and support.

I have been busy these last few months visiting our neighborhoods and meeting with constituents. I want to thank you for sharing your ideas and concerns with me. I look forward to returning to Albany after the holidays to fight for our common goals—like rebuilding in the wake of Sandy and helping those most impacted by the storm; creating good-paying jobs; keeping guns out of the hands of violent criminals; and ensuring that families have access to decent, affordable housing.

I would also like to remind you that this winter will be especially hard for seniors on fixed incomes and working families faced with skyrocketing energy costs. While I am working with my colleagues to find ways to expand programs that help New Yorkers pay for home heating costs, I would encourage you all to look in on your neighbors, especially seniors, in need of a helping hand.

As always, I invite you to stop by my District Office, if only to say hello, or call me with any questions or concerns. Remember—my staff and I are here to serve your needs.

With 2012 drawing to a close, I want to wish you a safe and happy holiday and a new year filled with good health and prosperity.

Sincerely,

Jose Peralta
