

CONSTITUENT HOURS AND BACK TO SCHOOL RESOURCES WITH SENATOR JOSÉ M SERRANO

This August, our off-site constituent hours at libraries will be focused on connecting children, young adults, and their families to free programs and services provided by the New York City Department of Youth and Community Development. Stop by the select constituent hours to learn about after school programs, jobs and internships, classes like GED, and English, services for runaway and homeless youth, family support, and more.
