A Fang-tastic Evening

Sen. Martinez and Assemblymember O'Pharrow invite the community to a night of candy, costumes and chills during annual Halloween event

DEER PARK, N.Y. - New York State Sen. Monica R. Martinez and Assemblymember Kwani B. O'Pharrow are summoning all little ghosts, witches, and skeletons for an evening of Halloween fun during the annual Trunk or Treat celebration on Friday, Oct. 31, 2025, at Geiger Park in Deer Park from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

This free event offers a safe space for kids to enjoy candy, prizes, music, and much more. Families can look forward to a Best Trunk and Costume Contest, music, treats, and plenty of spooktacular surprises throughout the night. Young trick-or-treaters are encouraged to wear their costumes, though they're welcome to come as their spooky selves. The festival also supports an allergy-friendly environment, making it an inclusive experience for all.

"The zombies and ghouls absolutely 'slay' with their costumes every year, and the creativity never disappoints," said Sen. Martinez. "It's always great to see all of the cops and robbers, heroes and villains, and knights and dragons come together for this event. The only thing ‘sus’ is how fast the candy disappears.”
