SENATOR HELMING SWORN IN AT STATE CAPITOL

Senator Helming is given the oath of office by New York State Court of Appeal Chief Justice Janet DiFiore, as her husband Gary holds the family Bible, and her son Evan and his girlfriend Sierra Johnson look on.

Senator Pam Helming (R,C,I-54th Senate District) today took the oath of office in the Senate Chamber at the State Capitol in Albany.

“Today was a proud day for me and my family. I am deeply humbled and grateful to represent the men and women of the 54th Senate District, and I look forward to hearing their thoughts and concerns as I travel throughout the district in the coming weeks,” said Senator Helming. “As State Senator, I will continue my predecessor’s commitment to excellent community relations and constituent services, while being a strong voice and tireless advocate for the Finger Lakes region.”
