

I have a writing handicap such that the signature is often rejected when voting in person (early voting). Please allow a photo ID (driver's license) to overrule the computer. No two of my signatures are ever exactly the same or sometimes ever close.

Also the in-person stand where you fill out your ballot is not sturdy and wobbles. This leads to difficulty in keeping the bubble filled in without going outside the bubbles