COMMITTEE JURISDICTION AND OVERVIEW

The New York State Senate Standing Committee on Rules has wide discretion over bill review. The Committee on Rules may sit at any time and report bills out of committee which have been referred to Rules from any other Committee, including bills which may have been referenced to the committee upon introduction.

During the 2023 Legislative Session 960 bills were referred to the Committee for its review. Of these bills, 738 were reported from the Committee, 235 were passed by the Senate, and 479 passed in both houses. This work was conducted through a series of 22 committee meetings. A list of all bills that were reported from the committee is provided at the end of this report.

TWO-HOUSE BILLS

In 2023, 479 of the 960 bills referred to the Standing Committee on Rules passed both houses of the Legislature. Of these bills, the Governor has signed 415 and vetoed 61, and 2 bills are awaiting Executive action.
