

PATHWAYS TO FUNDING

INFORMATION ON AVAILABLE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL & PRIVATE GRANTS

Pathways To Funding is a monthly publication intended to provide organizations and individuals with support in finding and applying for federal, State, local and private grants.

Distributed by the NYS Senate Democratic Conference, this resource helps identify alternative funding opportunities, along with tips for easy navigation of the NYS Grants Gateway—an online portal for announcing upcoming and available State grants—and announcements of upcoming webinars on grant writing, helpful hints and other useful information. Included is a sample list of available federal, state, local, and private grants that will be updated on a continuous basis.

Non-profit, faith-based and community-based organizations, no matter the size, are encouraged to apply for grants to sustain their vital programs. If you need additional assistance, please contact Celeste Knight by phone at (518) 455-2707 or email at cknight@nysenate.gov.

NEW YORK STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS (NYSICA) DECENTRALIZATION PROGRAM, BROOKLYN ARTS COUNCIL (BAC) LOCAL ARTS SUPPORT (LAS) GRANT

Grants ranging from $2,000 to $5,000 to Brooklyn, New York nonprofits or artists and New York City artists in partnership with Brooklyn nonprofits for local arts projects. New applicants and those who have not received this grant since 2016 are required to attend an information session prior to applying. The arts projects can be interdisciplinary or multi-disciplinary, visual, literary, or performing arts, and should engage a diverse range of local communities.

Program areas of funding include: dance; film/video/media; folk arts; interdisciplinary arts; literary arts; multi-disciplinary projects; music/opera; theater/musical theater; visual arts/crafts.

Competitive projects will demonstrate the ability to identify the community it strives to engage and articulate the proposed methods of engagement in a thoughtful association between the philosophy of the project and said community. Projects should include a clear, realistic timeline that demonstrates the ability to complete the project to scope within the calendar year 2019; engagement of experienced and appropriate personnel, including appropriateness of nonprofit partner; and plans to promote the project. BAC strongly supports the payment of artist fees that are field and project appropriate.

Funded projects must be open and accessible to the Brooklyn population and in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act whenever possible.

Funding is provided for:

- Public projects occurring in Brooklyn in the calendar year 2019.
- Refer to specific grant opportunities for program-specific funding priorities and review criteria for overall funding criteria. All will be funded.

Deadline: Ongoing

Estimated Size of Grant:
$2,000 - $5,000

MAYOR'S OFFICE OF MEDIA AND ENTERTAINMENT MADE IN NY MEDIA EMPLOYEE TRAINING

Grants to New York City companies working in the entertainment industry for employee training, with a primary emphasis on activities that will increase creative, technical, and business skills. The purpose of this program is to help entertainment businesses grow. Consideration will be given to all proposals that will increase revenue and help employees acquire new skills and/or increase their compensation.

Grantees will work with program staff to design a proposal that will help the business earn more money and employees gain much-needed skills. The grantee will supply the ideas; grant program staff will provide assistance in creating a proposal.

Proposals will be reviewed with the following questions in mind:

- How much, if at all, will this training help your company increase its revenue in the next year?
- How much, if at all, will this training help your employees acquire new skills, responsibilities, and/or increase their compensation in the next year?
- Why do you need this support? Could you conduct or pay for training on your own?
- The better you can demonstrate that training will increase your revenues, enable your employees to develop critical skills, and that you need grant support to provide this training, the stronger the likelihood that your proposal will be funded.

Deadline: Ongoing

Estimated Size of Grant:

The cost of training can vary widely depending on what kind of training you need; a good rule of thumb is between $1,000 and $5,000 per staff member. Recipients will be reimbursed 70% of the total.

EDNA MCCONNELL CLARK FOUNDATION

The Clark Foundation will continue its grantmaking through three distinct but related strategies:

The Foundation's core Youth Development Fund concentrates on helping high-performing youth-serving nonprofits achieve greater impact. Although it continues to work with its current grantees, it has ceased adding new organizations to its portfolio.

PropelNext helps promising nonprofits, often at an earlier stage of organizational development, improve their collection and use of data to produce better outcomes for youth. PropelNext is exploring supporting, in partnership with other funders, additional grantees in new cohorts.

HEARST FOUNDATIONS

The Hearst Foundations support well-established nonprofit organizations that address significant issues within their major areas of interests – culture, education, health and social service – and that primarily serve large demographic and/or geographic constituencies. In each area of funding, the Foundations seek to identify those organizations achieving truly differentiated results relative to other organizations making similar efforts for similar populations. The Foundations also look for evidence of sustainability beyond their support.
