- Approximately 90% of those arrested for crimes will now be released without posting bail
- Prevents public access to mugshots, which is a clear assault on public safety and the public's right to know
- Radical new changes that will make it harder for every police officer in every community to do their jobs (More disclosure for cops, less for criminals)
- New pro-criminal reforms that tip the scales of justice toward criminals and against prosecutors

A Bad Budget for Hardworking, Law-Abiding Taxpayers:
