Brooklyn, N.Y, Jan. 16th, 2023 - New York State Senator Kevin Parker and A Shared Dream Foundation held the 19th Annual Tribute Concert, “A Shared Dream - Homecoming,” to honor the life and legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. After having been virtual for the past two years, the “Homecoming” tribute concert to Dr. King’s legacy took place in person at the Goshen Temple of the Seventh-day Adventist in Flatbush, Brooklyn on MLK Day.

Liz Black of WBLS hosted this year’s tribute featuring the soulful sounds of headliners Anointed Friends, Renewed in Christ, and Bev Burton. The tribute also showcased local performances, like Jamel Gaines Creative Outlet, Ifetayo Cultural Arts Academy, and the Empire Marching Band.

“For 19 years, the A Shared Dream free MLK tribute concert in word, song, and dance has been a rite of passage for many Brooklyn residents allowing them to honor Dr. King in a public way,” said Senator Parker. “It’s important that we continue to recognize and honor the trailblazers of our community. In sponsoring this concert every year, I hope it serves as a reminder that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.”

Attendees described the event as “A blessing” and “very inspiring.” By listening to the leaders and celebrating MLK, we were honored to be here and represent what he fought for, said a member of Kingsboro Temple SDA Church Mass Choir who was among the performer’s Community advocates and elected leaders who showed up and brought greetings to the capacity crowd in attendance, included: U.S. Senate Majority Leader Senator Charles ‘Chuck’ Schumer, N.Y.S. Lt. Governor Antonio Delgado, N.Y.S. Attorney General Tish James, N.Y.C Public Advocate Jumaane Williams, U.S. Congress Member Yvette Clarke, and N.Y.C. Council Member Rita Joseph. They all shared their thoughts on what Dr. King’s dream means in this present climate.
