Senator Helming Presents Empire Award to Schutt's Apple Mill in Webster

Senator Pam Helming presented Schutt's Apple Mill with a New York State Senate Empire Award in recognition of their generous community support, including donating over 2,100 bags of apples to the Webster community in the early days of the Covid-19 pandemic.

"As a fourth-generation, family-owned farm, Schutt's Apple Mill is part of the fabric of the Webster community and a vital part of the local economy," said Senator Helming. "My thanks to Evan Schutt and the Schutt family for their generosity and commitment to their neighbors and community."

The New York State Senate Empire Award recognizes businesses for significant contributions to the growth and prosperity of their communities and state.
