

NEW YORK STATE SENATE
*****

20  19
VETERANS' HALL OF FAME

EDWARD G. AULMAN

First Lieutenant Edward G. Aulman graduated from St. John's University in 1968 with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science. He was commissioned into the United States Marine Corps after his graduation.

First Lieutenant Aulman served in the Vietnam War. During the Gulf War, he sought to rejoin the Marines. He was politely and diplomatically told to "Go home sir and think about it." Since that day, he has steadfastly and consistently been involved with veterans and their issues.

First Lieutenant Aulman has been involved in many veterans' organizations. He has worked for the Nassau County Supervisor and area congressional representative on veterans issues, and is the host of "Veterans News" on Cablevision/Altice, Verizon and local public access networks. Since its inception he has been a member of the mentorship program for the Nassau County Veterans Treatment Court.

First Lieutenant Aulman is a recipient of the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnamese Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal, and Combat Action Ribbon. He was married in 1970 at St. Dominic's and lives in Syosset with his wife, Beverly.
