OMAR LEBRON

Omar Lebron was born and raised in East Harlem, New York City. He has a distinguished military background retiring with almost 16 years of service in the United States Army at the Rank of Staff Sergeant (SSG) E-6.

Mr. Lebron's period of service is from January 1994 - July 2014, with a small break in service where he held a distinguished position of Program Director of a Welfare to Work program in the Bronx, while working with Goodwill Industries.

Mr. Lebron served during our Nation's most active military functions in recent years, having deployed to Kosovo in support of the United Nations mission in 1999-2000 and to Iraq twice in 2003 and again in 2009-2010.

He graduated from Fordham University with his Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Leadership. Mr. Lebron is a full-time student at Fordham University achieving his Master's Degree in Ethics and Society.

He gave a lot of his time to the cause of meeting the needs in policy change to the international and local communities by interning with an Nongovernmental Organization (NGO) in partnership with the United Nations as an Additional Representative on the UN mission to eradicate poverty by the year 2030.

Mr. Lebron has also been a member of Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America (IAVA) since September 2016 and has volunteered to support several events citywide. He is currently continuing to service the community by being named the Co-Chair of the Policy Platform committee for the West Harlem Progressive Democrats as of April 2018.

OMAR LEBRON WAS SELECTED AS A 2020 VETERANS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE BY SENATOR BRIAN A. BENJAMIN.
