Jonathan W. Dush

March 28, 2016, 20 year-old John Dush passed away unexpectedly. John was the loving son of Janet and Joseph Dush.

He was born on November 27, 1995 in San Francisco, CA. He graduated from San Francisco State University in 2017 with a degree in Business. John worked at Safeway in San Francisco as a cashier. He had a passion for cooking and baking and enjoyed spending time with his family and friends.

In addition to his parents, John is survived by his brother Joseph Dush and his sister Julia Dush.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in John’s name to the American Heart Association.

Stephanie Jackson

March 26, 2016, 69-year-old Stephanie Jackson passed away on March 1, 2016 at her residence in Alameda, CA. Stephanie was born on June 11, 1946 in Los Angeles, CA to Betty and Robert Jackson.

She is survived by her husband of 48 years, Bill Jackson; her son, Christopher; her daughter, Sarah; and her two granddaughters, Jordan and Delilah. She is also survived by her sisters, Patricia and Mary, her brothers, David and Brian, and her nieces, Martha and Lisa.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Cancer Society in memory of Stephanie Jackson.

Lebanon, Pakistan, and Brussels. Paris. San Francisco. Wherever the movie goes, the diaspora follows.

These are just a few of the flashpoints in the last year that helped to drive the box office. By late spring, the House Select Committee on Homeland Security had already mandated increased security at public events and at key points in the country, including at the White House.

Unfortunately, John Dush was left without effective insurance to cover the cost of his funeral out of pocket. In addition, the support of his mother for the majority of his life and she has always done her best to provide for her family. She is not one who often asks for help but, in this time of need, the family could use any support and one offer.

Please help support the Dush family on GoFundMe as they say their final goodbye to John beloved son, brother and uncle.

On March 28th, 2016, 77-year-old retired city worker Charles Edwards is a merry self-described hillbilly.

"I like to think of myself as a hillbilly from Texas," Edwards said. "I like to talk about things, and I like to laugh." He is a life-long resident of the Alameda neighborhood of San Francisco and has lived there for 40 years.

Edwards is a self-described hillbilly who enjoys cooking and fishing. He is also an avid golfer and loves to watch NASCAR races. Despite his rough exterior, he is known for his warm personality and love of life.

"I love life. I don't like doing anything that doesn't make me feel better," Edwards said.

On the issue of crime, he said that the rent control was working and that the neighborhood was safe.

"We have a lot of people that live here that are happy, and they're not afraid to walk around," Edwards said. "It's a great place to live."
