Reduce. Reuse. Recycle
That's what they always say.
And at this point, it might be our only way to save the day.

Our planets getting destroyed.
By the minute that we speak
While all of our ecosystems are getting weak.

It's our turn now to give back to our world
All the boys and the girls

So wave your magic wands in the air
Because there is no better time than now
To save the trees.

Please.
