

the pulp, then they float to the top from where you can remove them, at this stage, you make use of hydrogen peroxide to increase the enhance to brightness, purity and whiteness and then, to completely dry out the pulp sheet, you make use of a heated metal roller." This supports that recycling paper takes a lot of steps to be completed. Therefore, this is how you can recycle paper and cans.

In conclusion, I have taught you how to reduce, reuse and recycle. You can reduce to save the earth by composting and donating good things you used. You can reuse to save the earth by getting paid to return old books and making new goods from old clothes. You can recycle to save the earth by recycling paper and cans. Use what I've taught you and save the earth!