

Jonathan Boling
5-207

PS94Q

Poem about Earth.

Gracious Earth, how glorious you are,
A sparkling pearl in the midst of the stars,
A universe of marvel and shock,
With magnificence that simple entrance.

From seas profound to mountains high,
Where life can blossom and flourish,
A home to animals extraordinary and little,
Goodness, how you have everything!

Your skies are painted with dusk tones,
Your woodlands loaded up with lively tints,
Your oceans are overflowing with life,
Gracious, how you blow our mind.

The seasons dance in wonderful time,
Every one exceptional, every one heavenly,
Your if that don't beat all to flabbergast,
What's more, it leaves us in a state of shock.

Goodness Earth, you really are a pearl,
A valuable pearl, a precious jewel,
We commitment to secure and value you,
Forever.