

I Love Recycling by Jason

Recycling is a system where we gather and reuse materials like paper, plastic, or aluminum. Food and garden waste can be recycled too and it is biodegradable.

Recycling just one water bottle could save 50% less water and can save 20% air pollution. Landfill rubbish rots and as it rots it can create a dangerous greenhouse gas, called Methane.