

I am thankful for a lot of things. I think everyone should be thankful for what they have in life, because some people don't have the things that we have.

The first thing I'm thankful for is my family .My brother is really nice to me and if something were to happen to him we would both be really sad .My parents are also really nice to me and they help me, give me food and take care of me .I'm thankful for my family because they are the best and some people don't have families and I am thankful with what I have .That is the first thing that I am thankful for.

The second thing I'm thankful for is food .Living in New York City, we see and enjoy many different types of food .We get to taste food from different cultures such as Chinese food, Indian, Spanish, Italian, Turkish, Russian and many others .Some people in other countries are not as fortunate as we are getting to experience all these wonderful foods.

The third thing I'm thankful for is my clothes and my home .I need clothes to cover my body so I won't get sick in the cold .I'm thankful for my home because its where I live and if I didn't have a home I would be cold and sick and would have to live with the struggles of not living in a home.

These are a few things I'm thankful for. I'm thankful for a lot of more things but I only listed four things that I'm thankful for.
